DIVERSE CITY

Here’s to a season filled with joy, creativity and a little magic!

This year, I’m spreading some festive cheer in a different way, with a donation to Diverse City — helping more people take centre stage, share extraordinary stories and shape the future of the performing arts.
Because great art should be accessible to everyone, not just a few.